We are currently working on a project to revitalise the markets and the new strategy sets out a vision that:

‘Positions the Markets as exciting, vibrant and inclusive and provides a legacy asset better serving the whole community which will help make Jersey a great place to live, for us and future generations.

We will see an increase in footfall and dwell time by providing an adaptable and innovative place that contributes positively to the local economy that will act as a catalyst to regenerate St Helier. This evolution will ensure the long-term viability of the Markets so they are resilient, lively, and purposeful for many decades to come.

We will see the Markets serve as a platform for independent local businesses and dynamic start-ups in order to encourage sustainable entrepreneurship and showcase and celebrate Jersey’s produce, products & service.

The Markets will offer a range of locally produced, high-quality and sustainable fresh produce, goods, food and drink, and host a variety of art and performance-based cultural activities to provide an original destination that evolves to meet the changing needs of Jersey’s residents, workers and visitors through the day and into the evening. We will also seek to enhance the historical significance and integrity of Central Market’.
